FROM

T. B. COPELAND, Esq., I. C. S.,
FIRST ASSISTANT TO THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

To

The Dewan of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, 8th February 1909.

SIR,

I am directed to forward herewith, for the information of the Durbar, a copy of the rules in force regarding the presentation of Indian gentlemen at His Majesty's Levées the Political Aid-de-Camp

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For First Assistant Resident.

Rules regarding the presentation of Indian gentlemen at His Majesty's Levées by the Political Aide-de-Camp.

1. No Student, as such, shall be considered eligible for presentation until he has been called to the Bar (if studying law), or taken his Degree (if a University Student), or his Diploma, or similar distinction, if studying for any other profession; provided that, in the case of Law Students, the Political Aide-de-Camp, at his discretion, may submit to the Lord Chamberlain for presentation the name of a Student who, having passed his final examination, is awaiting call to the Bar, and would return to India before another opportunity could occur for presenting himself at a Levée.

2. In the case of Indian Visitors to England, evidence must be adduced that the applicant has been received at a Levée or Durbar held by the Viceroy of India, or the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of the Province to which he belongs, or, if he be the subject of a Native State, that he is a "Durbari" in the Indian acceptation of that term.

3. Young men visiting England, to whom neither of the above rules is applicable, will be treated, if of age, as eligible for presentation at a Levée if their fathers would be eligible under Rule 2.

4. All applications for presentation or attendance at a Levée must be submitted to the Political Aide-de-Camp at least a fortnight before the date announced for the Levée.

5. Indian dress, with patent leather shoes, must invariably be worn by all Indian gentlemen who are presented at, or attend a Levée, by application through the Political Aide-de-Camp.
